A LETTER TO PARISHIONERS FROM DEACON PAUL REUTER

Dear parishioners,

This week, the parish is mailing to all of you a letter from Father Conrad announcing his retirement. Retirement can bring up many emotions, but we, as a parish need to celebrate what Father Conrad has accomplished and give him our love and support as he enters retirement. To help do this, the parish will be hosting a retirement party on May 14th after the 5:00 PM Mass in the parish hall. Please save this date on your calendar and we will send out more information on this as planning progresses.

With this decision being announced, the natural question on everyone's mind will be about the future leadership of our parish. At this time, I have not heard anything from Bishop McManus regarding changes in the parish administration. He is pleased with the current operations of the parish and at some point in the future he and the personnel board will decide who will be the new pastor of St. Anne Parish. Until that time, Father Albert and I will continue as sacramental minister and parish administrator. Not knowing what is next can cause us to worry and have fears. However, as people of faith, we trust in God when faced with uncertainties. We have a strong and active community and the Holy Spirit is fully present. Likewise, Bishop McManus makes his decisions with consultation, prayer, and guidance from the Holy Spirit. God is active in this whole process, and He will provide for the needs of this parish, and with our help, He will help provide and care for Father Conrad.

As always, if you have any questions about this please feel free to talk to me or Father Albert.

Deacon Paul Reuter

May they rest in peace.

Reflections from this weekend's Gospel: "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." When people watch us, do they know that we are the disciples of Jesus?

As Christians, we are called to do more than love the Lord. We are called to be his witnesses in the world by loving others as well. In today's Gospel reading, he gave us a new commandment, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Anyone, everyone, should be able to look at us and see this love in action. If we are not witnesses to this love, then we are falling short of our mission.

So, how did Jesus love us? Selflessly. His love was never motivated by personal gain. On the contrary, he often suffered for us, and not just on the cross. He faced rejection and animosity for loving those who were considered "unlovable" in his culture. He lived a life of poverty and simplicity, never focused on amassing things for himself, but always willing to give of himself. This is the love we are called to imitate.

The task can feel daunting. We are not perfect people, and being witnesses to Christ-like love can strike us as a lofty challenge. Of course, it's easier to be selfless and generous with people who love us in return, or with those who stir our compassion. But to be consistent witnesses to loving one another in all circumstances --like Jesus does for us--that takes it to another level. Thankfully, however, Jesus doesn't expect us to do this on our own. He promises us his Spirit to live in us and love through us. Through our baptism, we have his Spirit dwelling in our hearts, along with the supernatural gifts of faith, hope, and love. May we make these gifts flourish. Liturgical Publications

"CAN WE HEAR EACH OTHER NOW?"

As part of diocesan-wide strategic communications planning, we invite parishioners to take an online survey to help us understand better how people are communicating today. Being able to stay in touch with parishioners given increasingly hectic schedules is more important than ever. Your 5 – 10 minutes will provide critical input to improve our efforts at the parish and diocesan level. Please visit www.surveymonkey.com/r/comm-strategy before next weekend and help us hear you!
