POPE FRANCIS celebrating the final mass at World Youth Day 2016 Kraków, Poland:

Pope Francis encouraged hundreds of thousands of young people to "believe in a new humanity" that is stronger than evil and refuses to see borders as barriers. More than two million people from 187 countries gathered in southern Poland for 2016 World Youth Day, a gathering of Roman Catholics that celebrates the future of the church. Pope Francis urged the youth to be "the hope of the future" Some 50,000 priests and religious order members were on hand for this occasion including Bishop McManus.
